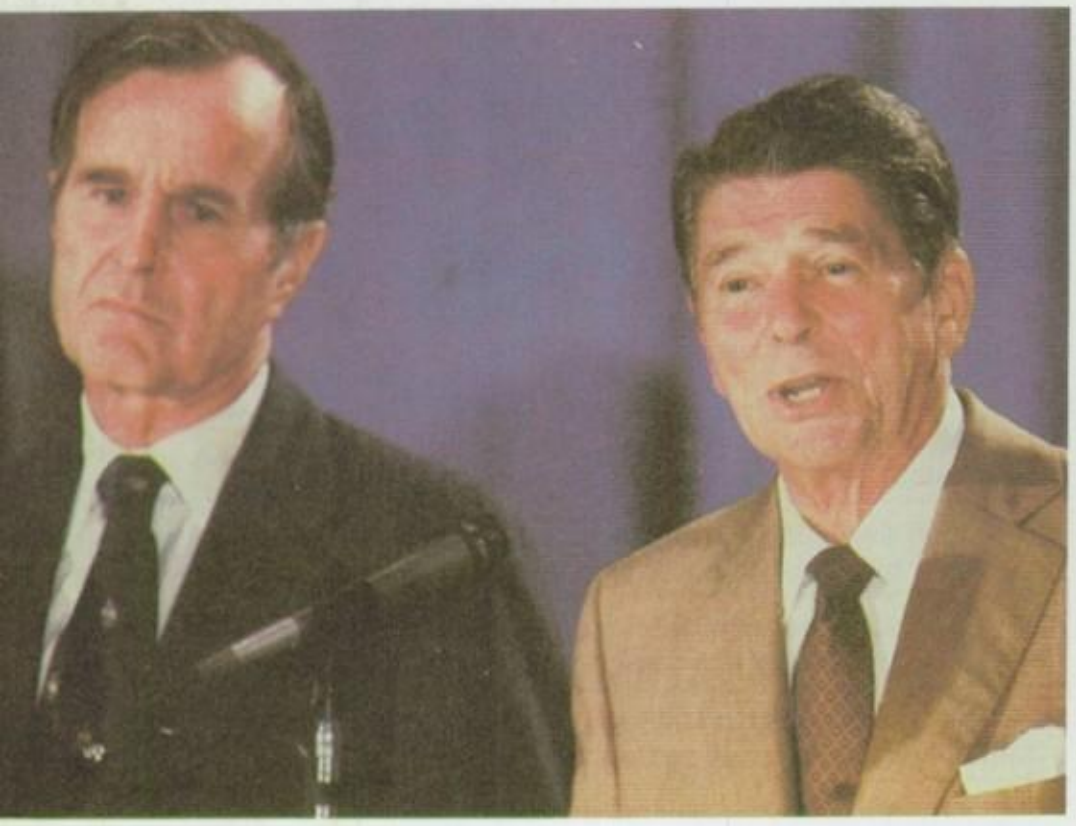
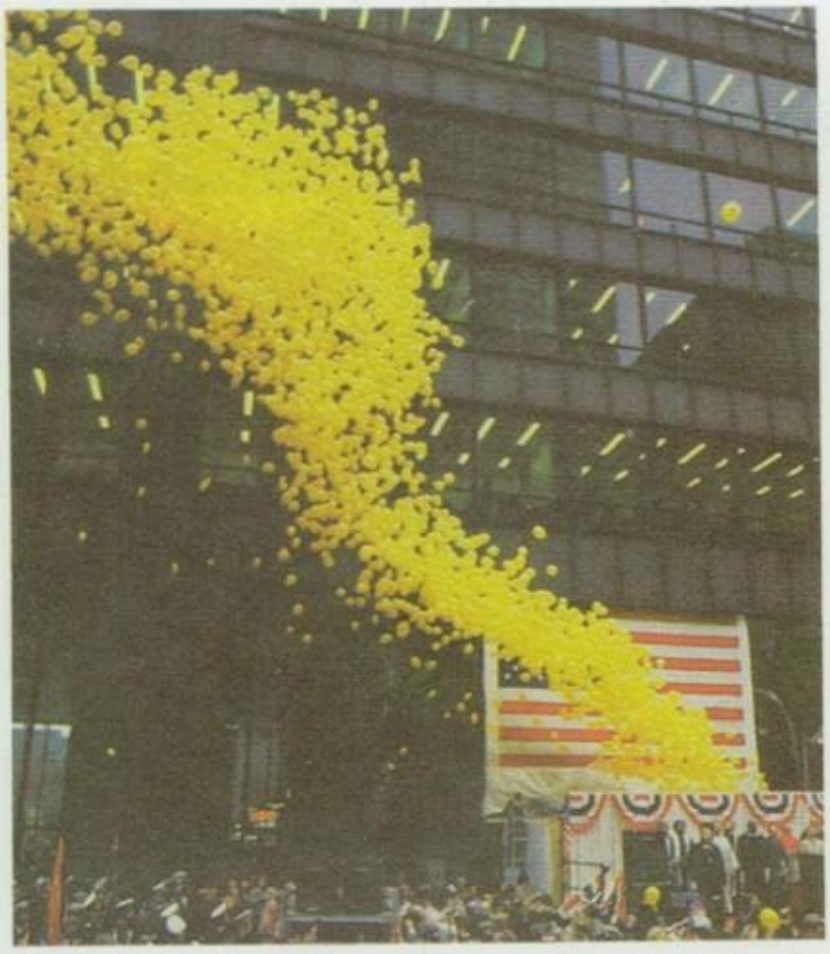
THE YEAR THAT WAS --- 1981

CONFUSED . . . "inflation, hostages, and government elections"





The ordeal ended after 444 days of inhumane captivity of American citizens in Iran. Hostages were welcomed home by prayer, family, and miles of yellow ribbon on Jan. 23, 1981. Three days earlier President Reagan's inaugural was held in Washington D.C. In a landslide election, the American public elected Ronald Reagan as their fortieth president. In many ways this election reflected the American concern with inflation and a weak world image.

CLOCKWISE: These guys and gals are ready for the roundup ... Derrick Wilburn and John Stritt tour the beautiful sites of D-DHS ... A Chem. I class demonstrates their school spirit on Blue and Gold Day ... Dana Simons and Bill Krueger put together their best outfits for Clash Day ... Susan Touchett gratefully accepts the Homecoming Crown.

COMPETITIVE . . .
"field day events"

CLOCKWISE: The Blues Brothers, alias Dan Meyer and Harry Morelock, show their best sides . . . Freshmen experience their first "Off the Wall" Homecoming event at D-DHS . . . Bill Peyer guzzles to a victory . . . J. C. Love dresses for the Homecoming dance early.

SPIRITED . . . "homecoming events"

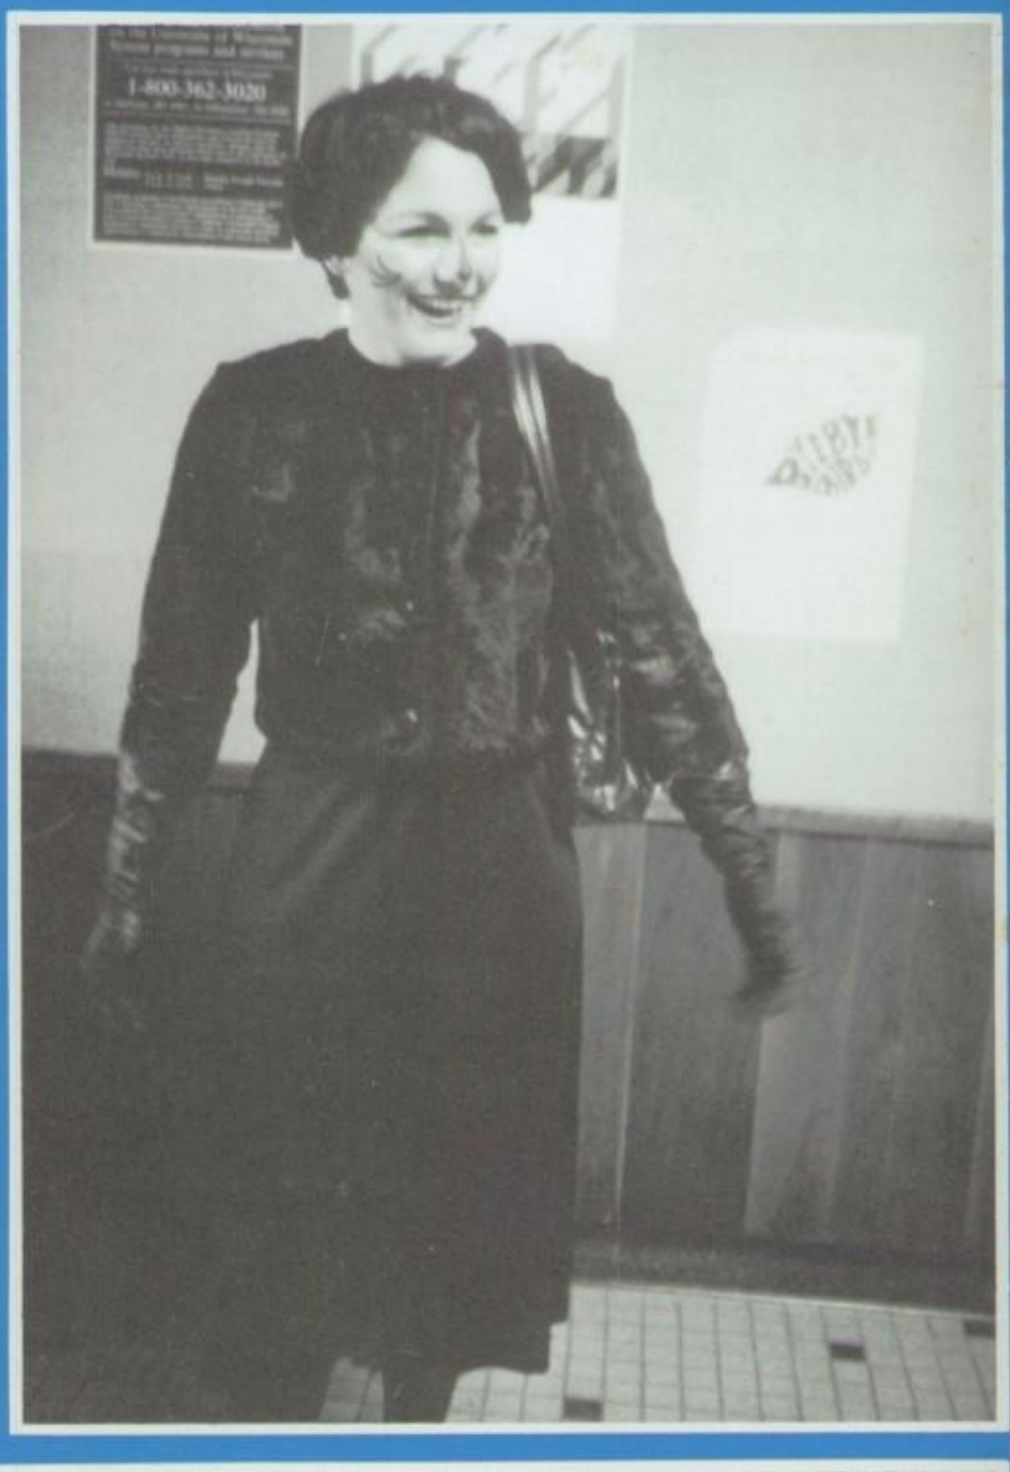
CLOCKWISE: Brad Jonuska squints as he prays that he doesn't get a mouthful of shaving cream . . . Chad Vorbrich pigs out in the jello eating contest . . . Whose balloon will burst first? . . . Jay Manning and Scott Lubis struggle to the end . . . After a hard march, Steve Karsten refreshes himself.

Homecoming 1980 was the year that everyone participated. The entire building was alive with the spirit necessary to carry us through the week and on into the week-end parties. Homecoming 1980 was the year that we were supposed to "Drown the Badgers in Lake Geneva" and "Make the Badgers Crawl Back into Their Hole." Yes, we accomplished these feats by beating the Badgers 7 - 0. Homecoming 1980 was the year that the seniors once again prevailed. They came out ahead after Spirit Week, and kept their lead right on through Field Day Events. Although the freshmen won the float building contest, the seniors won the Spirit Cup. Homecoming 1980 was the year of tourist day, baby bottle guzzling, jello eating (Mark Greidanus 4 year champ), cowboy day, cherry pit spitting, blue and gold day, and tug of war. Homecoming 1980 was the year that was.

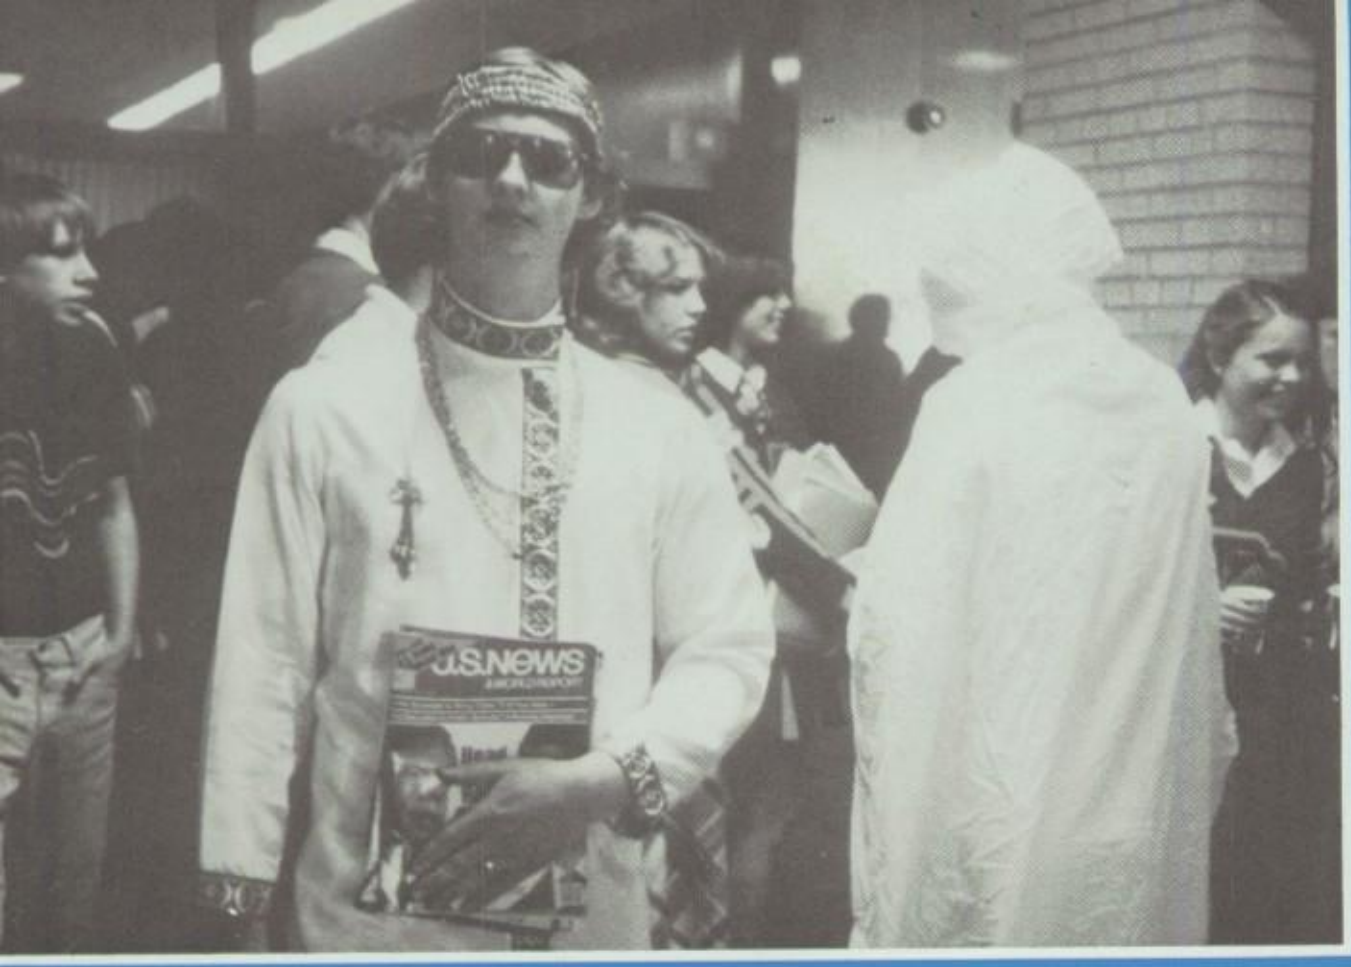
COUNTER CLOCKWISE: Chris Delhey couldn't decide which girl to take to the Homecoming dance . . . The football players take a ride through town hoping to find that special date . . . The band looks good after only two hours of practice . . . And the beat goes on.

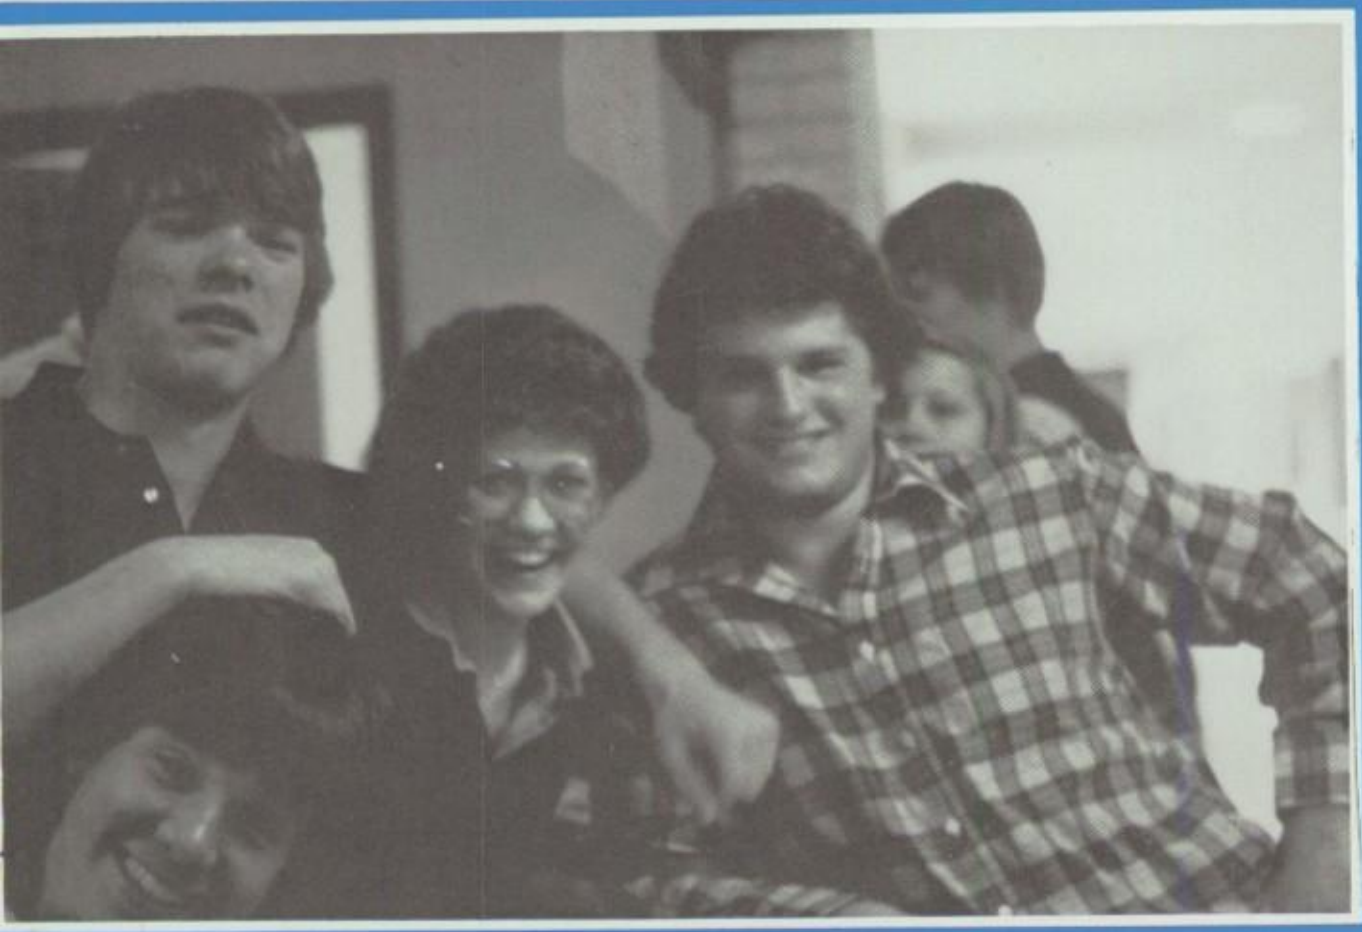
IMAGINATIVE . . .

"fads and fantasies"



COUNTER CLOCKWISE: The Catwoman strikes again . . . Blazers enter the fashion scene at D-DHS . . . These guys exhibit their personality with their T-shirts.





COUNTER CLOCKWISE: Even groupies read the news . . . Jennifer Reader experiences a life-long fantasy . . . Where's our horse? . . . General Terry Ohl reports for duty.

EXPRESSIVE . . . "trees, cookies and

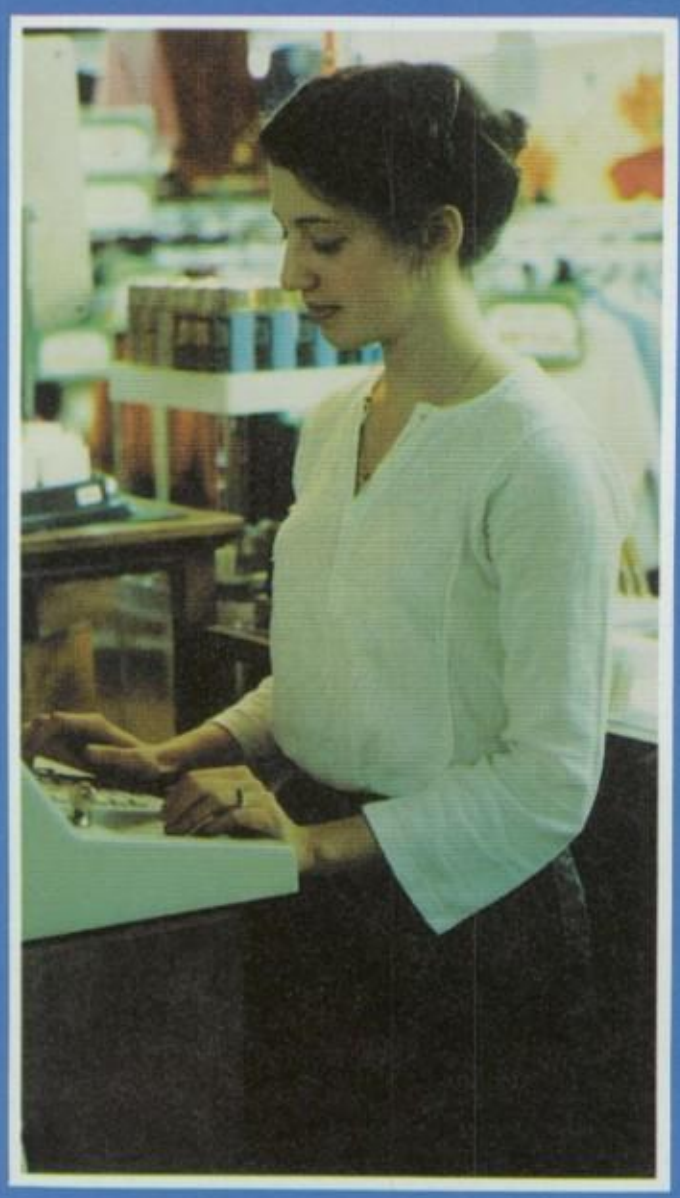
CLOCKWISE: Art students get into Christmas spirit with their version of an abstract tree . . . It looks good enough to eat . . . Santa's elves, Annette Hoag and Steve Amos, are checking their lists (tests) twice . . . Christmas wouldn't be Christmas without cookies . . . Joan Wallace wonders, "Who was that masked Santa?" . . . Miss Bradford's version of Kris Kringle . . . Pat Murphy tells Santa Claus what he "really" wants for Christmas while Suzi Wilgus eavesdrops . . . Even elves enjoy a Christmas present, don't they Mrs. Addie? . . . Dave Wheeler searches (in vain) for that dedicated ornament.

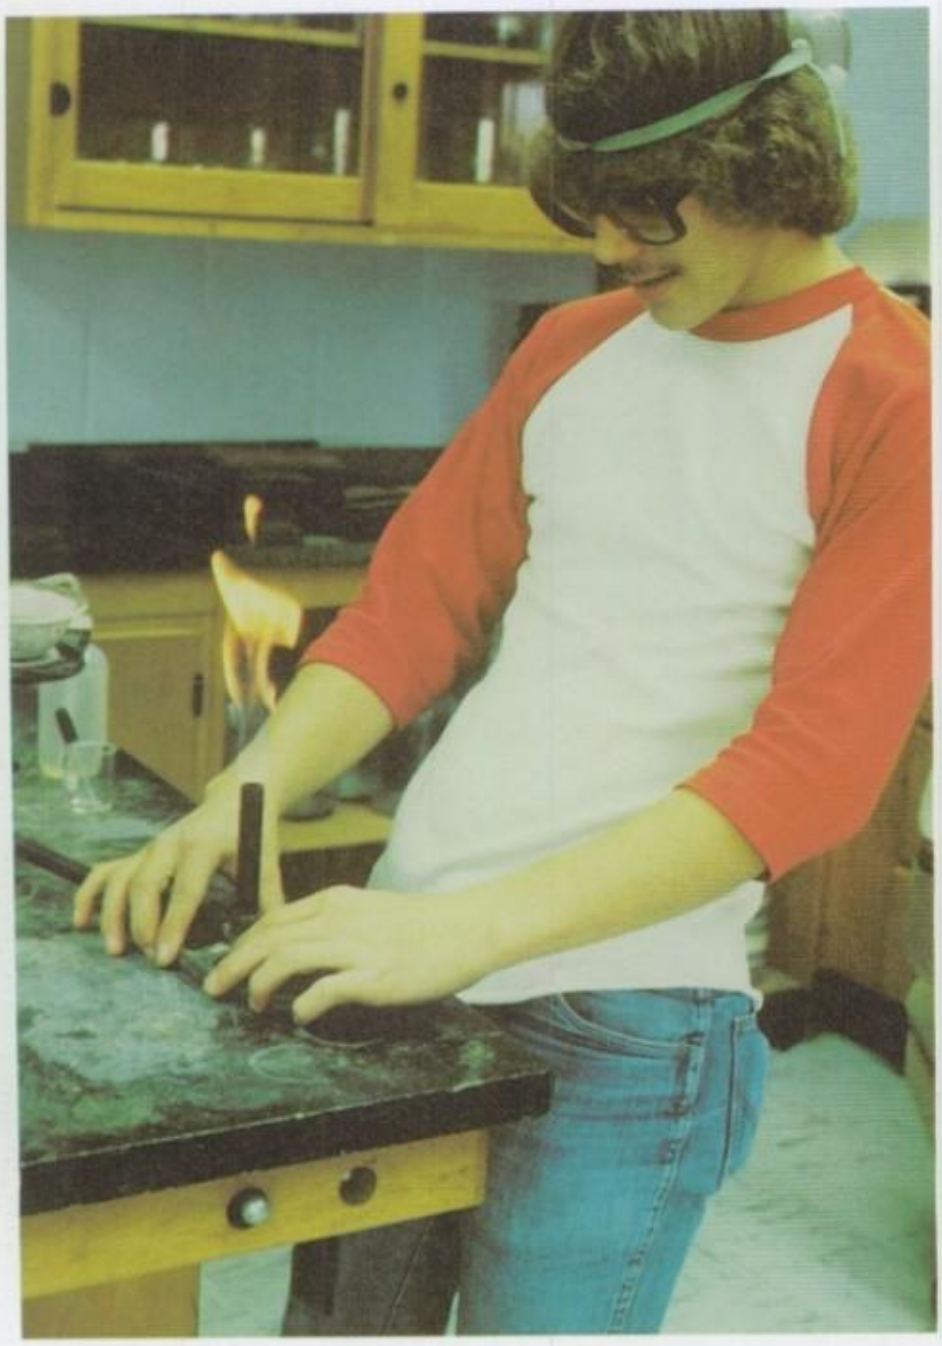
EXPENSIVE . . .
"dating, clothes, 'calvins,' cars,



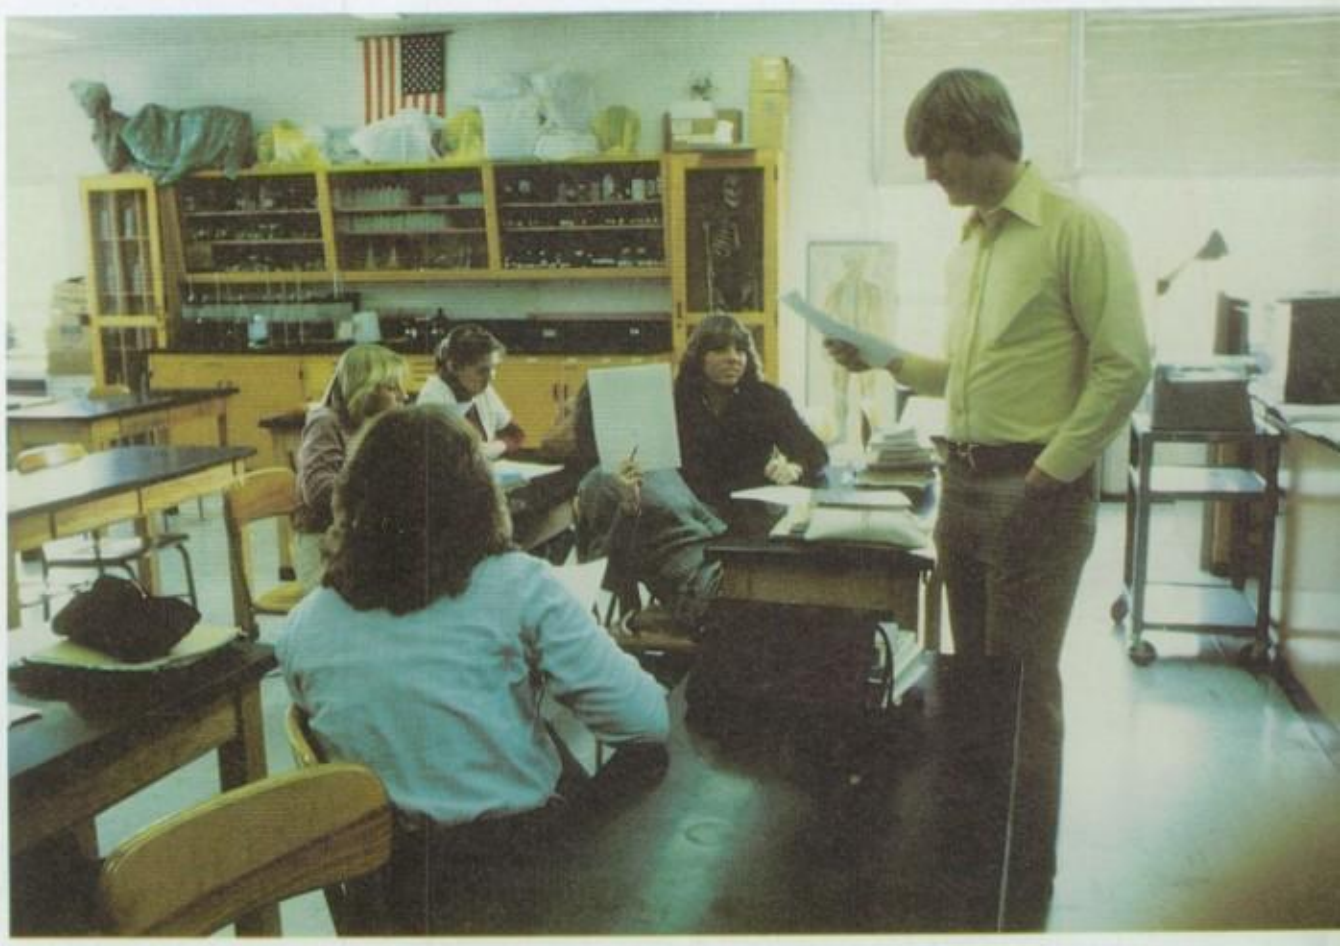
insurance, and graduation"

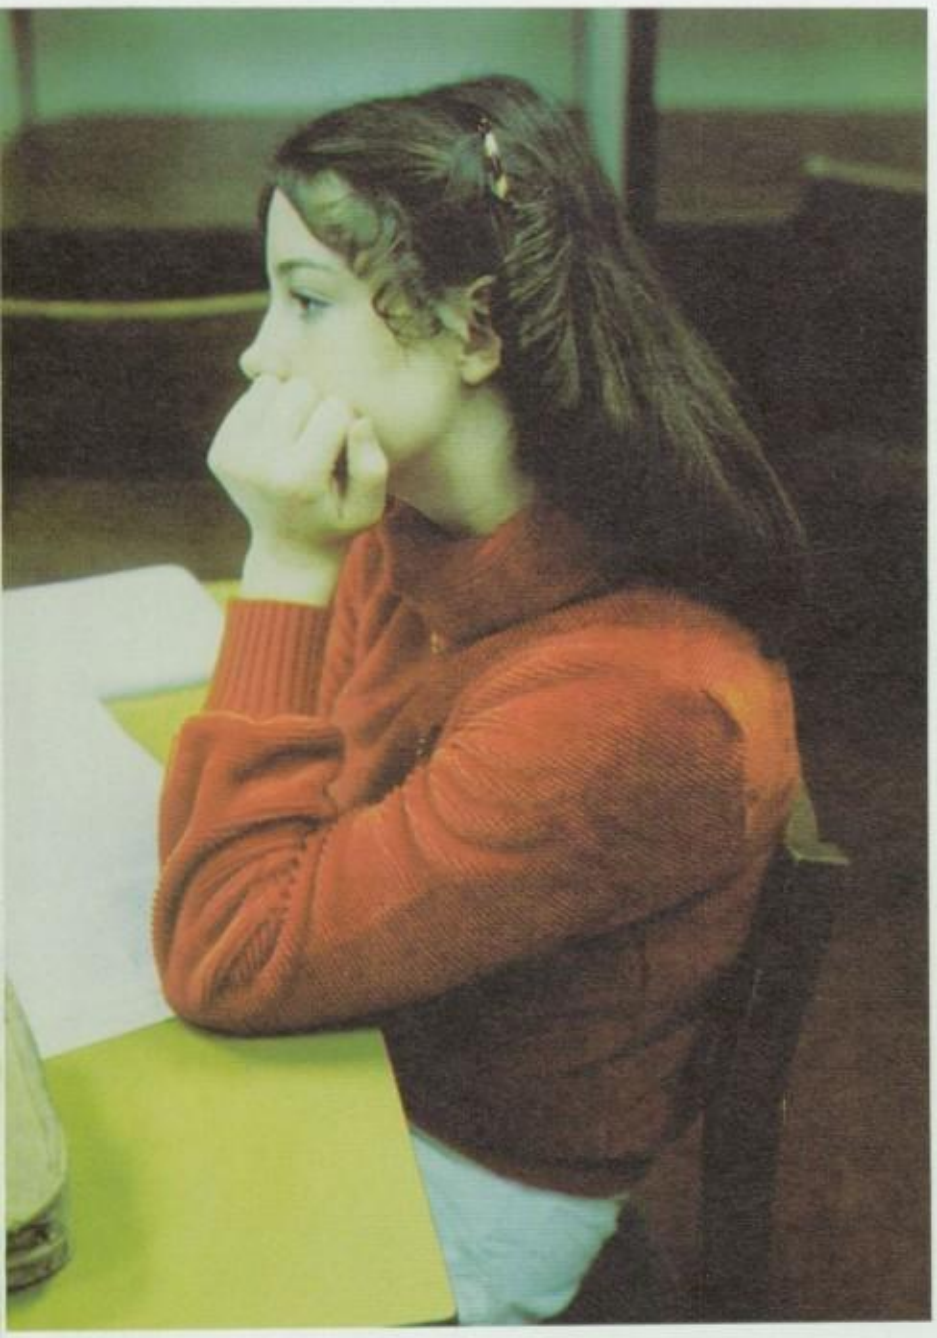
CLOCKWISE: Renee Wheeler gets "framed" into working at Ace Hardware ... Sandy Vegter cleans up after some diners ... Jeff Haines realizes that 10 to 20¢ does add up when he has to push a cart of empties ... John Schultz gives a customer his receipt ... Lori Lee samples McCullough's cosmetics ... Anita Seidelman is definately overjoyed at her job ... Jody Becker gets up in the world at Ace Hardware ... Sarah Vieth is happy at her work at Rexall's Drugstore ... The food really flies at A&W, just ask Kathy Lumkes.

DEMANDING . . . "physically and academically."

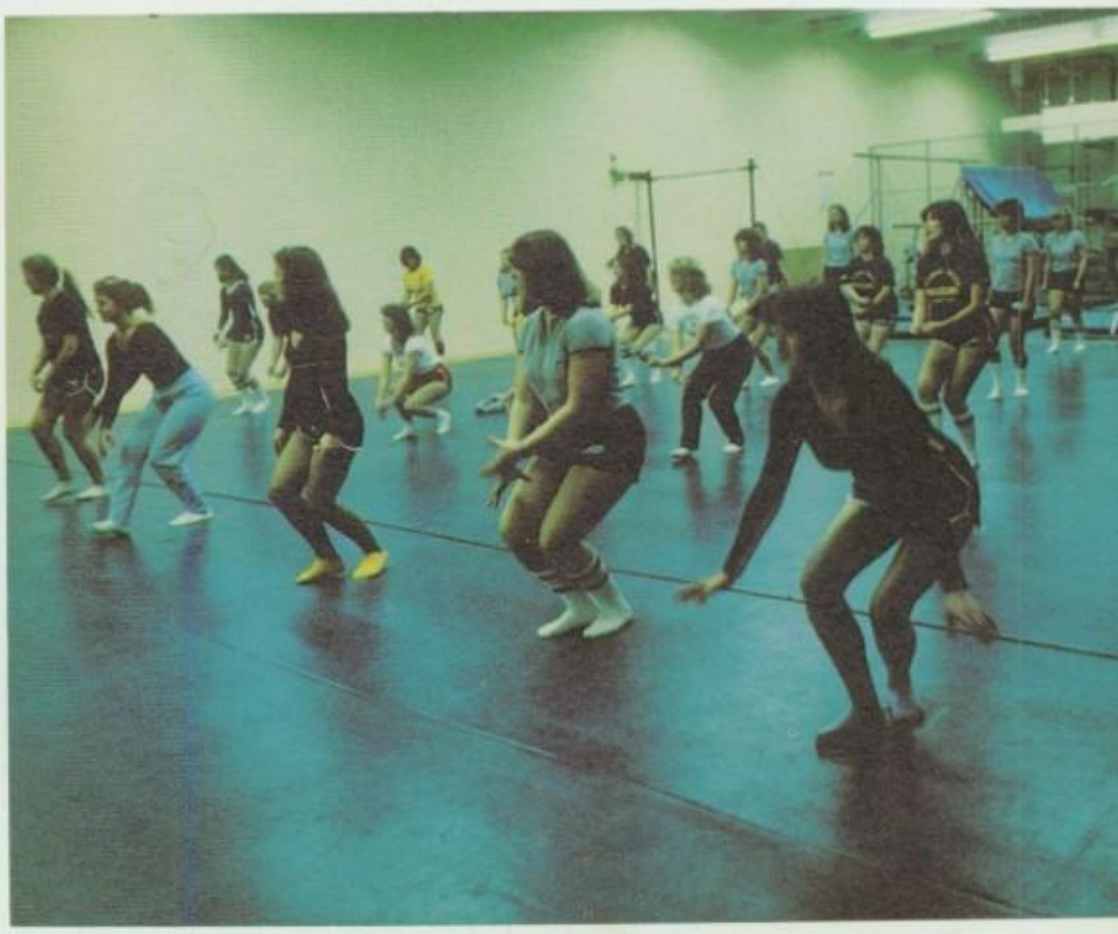


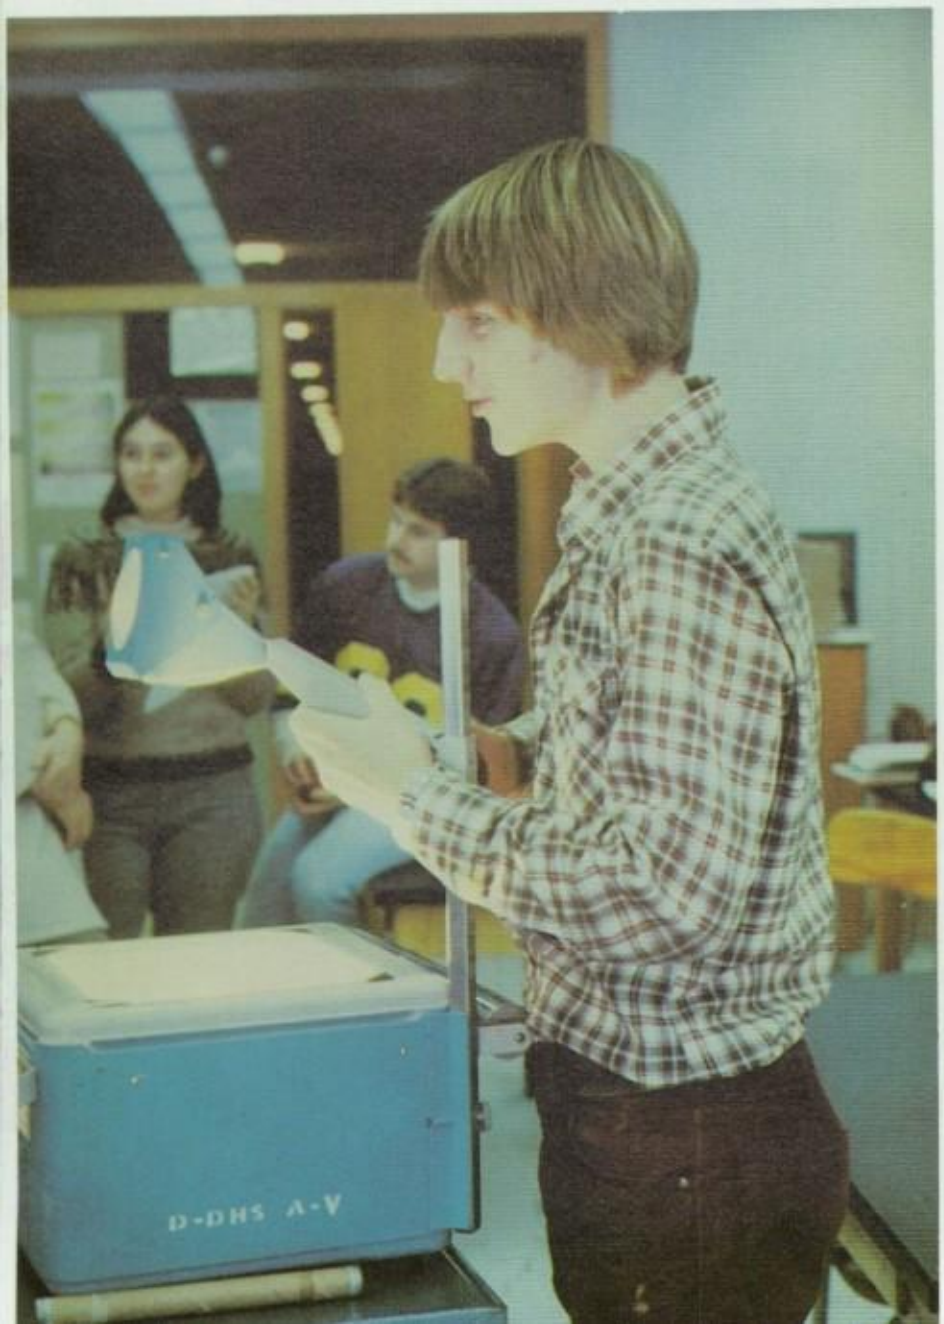
CLOCKWISE: Is Mike Casey's head on backwards or is it his glasses? . . . Kim Sheets can't find that elusive notecard . . . Mr. Thiel rambles on.

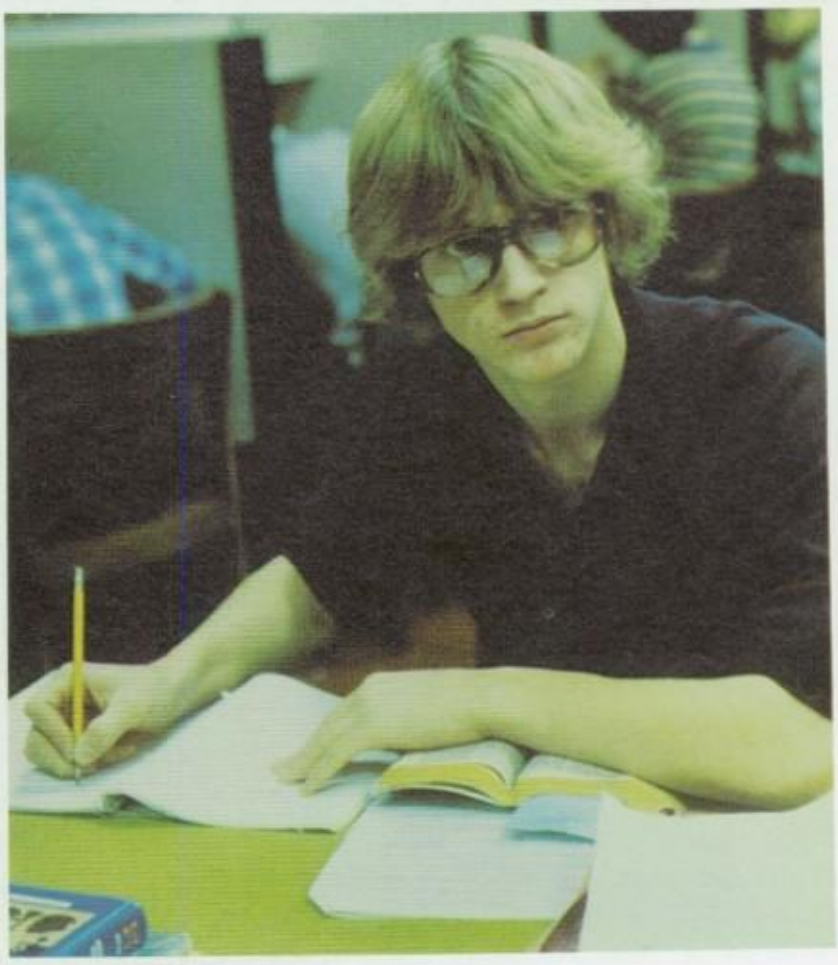




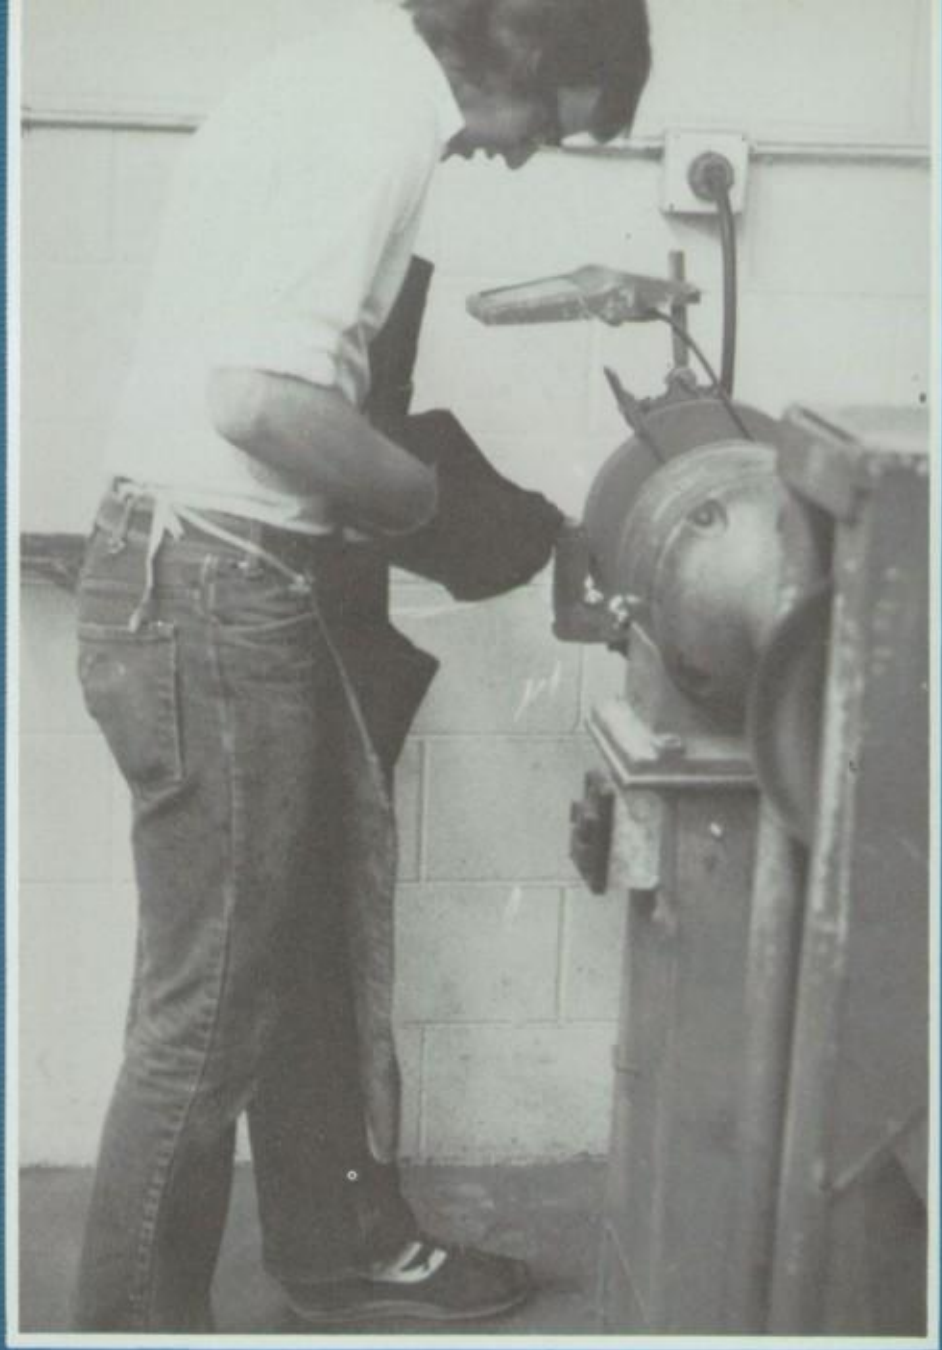
CLOCKWISE: Beth Kessler is miles away . . . Girls "hustle" in new slimnastics course . . . Look Mom, I really do study . . . Dave Stoick replaces Mr. Thiel as lecturer.







CLASSIC.



CLOCKWISE: Jerry Potter gets into the "grind" of things . . . Patty Helgeson does her work with a smile . . . Gary DeLeon shaves his metals project . . . Eric Stockholm searches for the answer in Urban Geography.

Another year of my life is gone, but it is not just one more; it is my AFS year in Wisconsin and that is why it is so important.

You don't have any idea of how much I learned, and not about school but about myself and about people. People in the United States and my people, my country Mexico, you never know what you have until you don't have it.

If you have the chance to take the course Novels with Mr. Daumler, do it. Then you are going to appreciate really what you do have, you are going to learn about the other side of the coin, that not everywhere looks as "neat" as Delavan.

This was a really good year for me and this does not mean a nice year, of course they were a lot of great moments, but they were also alot of hard and bad ones.

I would like to thank those persons that really accepted me the way that I am. Especially Claudia and David. "I may not be perfectly wise, perfectly witty of perfectly wonderful . . . but I'm always perfectly me." And I think that is what counts.

If you go some time to Mexico City, There I'll be!

I wish you the best of the best!
Love,

Maria Teresa Francisca de Aguero Servin (Tere)

It is very difficult for me to express what this year has meant for me. I could say it has helped me understand. Understand about people in general and about myself, about the world and about my country.

I can say that I have met some disappointments with some people, and I've had my bad times, too. But I guess that can't be helped and that's okay, too. I've met some really good friends to whom I am grateful for everything they have shared with me. It has also been great how most of the teachers and all other people that help AFS (that you can find everywhere) have been really wonderful.

I'd like to send special thanks to Tere and Claudia to whom I have come very close and also to my fantastic family the Smiley's. Without them it wouldn't have been even close to the unforgetable time I've spent here.

This year has been really great!

Hey you!

Yes, you with the "gold and blue T-shirt." Do you know where I'm now? Right, I'm back at my home country, Colombia. And guess what I am doing now, I'm remembering the year I spent in DDHS. Boy it was great! Of course I had very hard times. Boy, I was lucky to have such a good friend and other quaintances.

I learned so many things about a small community, a culture and what is most important to people, that, finally Life gave me a big lesson, "Not everybody knows how to be my friend."

Now, I'm in my homeroom LMC-C. That was fun! Every single day there was something to laugh about. A couple detentions per week, read the announcements before "Hunky Dory" tears them, "Happy Birthday to You," "I want a picture of you guys," "I'll see you here next year er "Come on guys, buy the Cometeer."

During this year I also learned much about my home country. I appreciate AFS and my two families who made a reality all my dreams, also Tere and Davo with whom I spent so many wonderful times.

I always will remember you as I'm doing now with a special feeling.

Comets, you take care now!

ACTIVITIES

Art Fair Proves Successful

Delavan-Darien High School's first annual Art Fair was held on Saturday, March 28, 1981. By involving students, faculty, and community members, artistic ideas were exchanged and a large attendance was evident. Advanced purchase awards totaled over $1,500. Many interesting displays and demonstrations were available for guests to enjoy. The artwork varied from handi crafts made by woodworking students, to arts and crafts by professional artists. Student demonstrations were given by a cappella, swing choir, string ensemble, and jazz band. Throughout the day, there were also professional demonstrations ranging from the art of wood bending to culinary art and pottery throwing. The art fair offered a wide range of entertainment for the community.
